

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION ASSESS YOURSELF

1. NERVES	1
Managing stage fright so it doesn't manage you	2
The physiology of fear	2
The power of adrenalin	3
Changing fear to fun, mentally and physically	6
Star Tips for managing presentation nerves	13
2. DEVELOPING YOUR CONTENT, DEVELOPING YOUR STRUCTURE	15
The first step	16
Getting your ideas to flow	16
Plugging into the World Wide Web	19
Who's listening?	19
Putting it all together	21
The many ways to give life to your structure	22
The keys to being memorable	24
Star Tips for developing and organising your content	27
3. TOOLS FOR DELIVERY — YOUR WORDS	29
Managing audience attention	30
Keep it simple, with impact	30
Jargon as a foreign language	36
What you don't say can be just as important	36
A picture paints a thousand words	38
How else do we remember?	45
Star Tips for using the words that will work best for you	47
4. TOOLS FOR DELIVERY — YOUR VOICE	49
Your presentation toolbox	50
Imitate your way to success	50
Expanding your comfort zone	51
But my material is so dry!	53
Speed	55
Star Tips for making the most of your voice	59
5. TOOLS FOR DELIVERY — YOUR FACE	61
Face facts	62
Smile, and the world smiles with you	63
Closing and opening your face	64
High brow, low brow	67
The eyes have it	68
Eye contact	70
Mouthing your way to success	72
Star Tips for adding meaning and impact with your face	73
6. TOOLS FOR DELIVERY — YOUR BODY	75
Do you speak body language?	76
Putting the body puzzle together	76
How many words are there in your body language vocabulary?	82
The complete message	84
Star Tips for making effective physical choices	85
7. VISUAL AIDS THAT HELP RATHER THAN HURT	87
What's the point?	88
The slippery nature of slides	88
Slides to open with, slides to close with	90
Trends in presentation slides	95
Slide do's and don'ts	95
The good, the bad, and the ugly	96
Handouts	98
Remote control	104
Laser pointers	105
Flipcharts and whiteboards	106
Fun and games	108
Visual aids for you	110
Star Tips for making sure your visual aids work for you	114
8. TECHNICAL PRESENTATION CHALLENGES	117
How technical presentations are different... and the same	118
Charts and graphs	118
Slides vs. take-home documents	121
Star Tips for enhancing the clarity of your technical presentations	123
9. MANAGING THE ENVIRONMENT	125
Arranging the furniture	126
Arranging your mind	132
Time killers	132
Musical accompaniment	132
Let the walls speak for you	133
Meet and greet	134
Some like it hot... and others don't	135
Bang, bang! You're dead	135
It's never too late to make changes	136
Time management	137
Star Tips for creating the right speaking environment	139
10. TROUBLESHOOTING	141
It depends on how you see it	142
What to do if...	142
Handling difficult questions	145
Managing your thoughts	150
Avoid ending on a sour note	152
Star Tips for managing unexpected or unwelcome events	153

INDEX ABOUT THE AUTHOR